

Giving a future to young people in Brussels Capital Region

The Youth Guarantee helps those who dropped out of schools to enter the job market quickly, promoting social cohesion

Young people are the driving force behind the future labour market and the motor of the economy, propelling innovation, creativity, and progress towards a prosperous tomorrow

Project Manager
European Social Fund Unit at Actiris

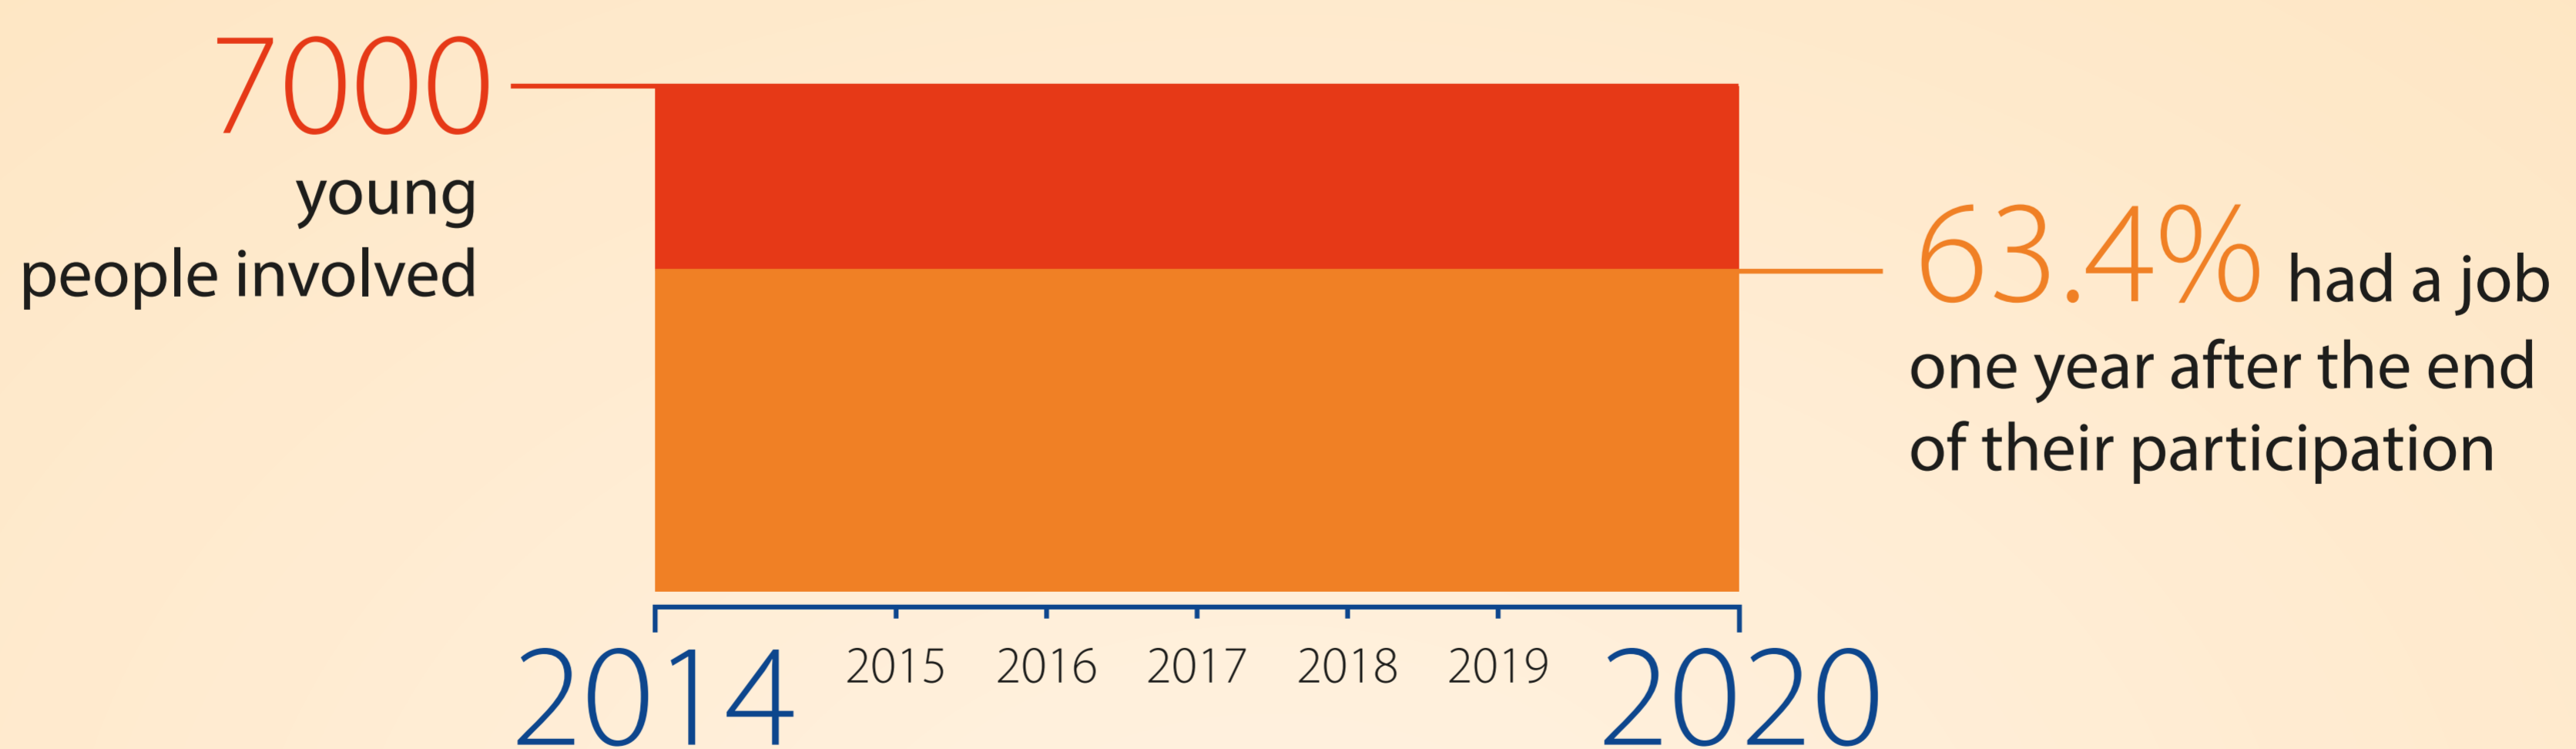

Objectives:

- Offer internships, trainings, and personalised coaching sessions to young people with few qualifications or no working experience
- Help young people to enter the job market more quickly

Impact on local community:

- Professional integration of young people who struggle to enter the job market
- A boost to social cohesion, intervening into particularly precarious situations such as school dropouts or housing problems
- Promote a better mutual understanding of the needs of employers and unskilled young people

Funding:

- € 4,817,920.72 from cohesion policy (ESF)
